

A little of your time can make a big difference

“An overnight stay can be as good as a weeks holiday. It gives me time for myself and time with my other children”

We are looking for people who can look after a disabled child on a regular basis, from a few hours a week to a few days per month.

We welcome all kinds of people, retired, working, unemployed, single, married, with or without children

We provide training, on-going support and expenses
